This application is housing wildlife data that is accessible through the Virginia Department of Game and Inland Fisheries web site. Three different levels of access provide visitors, subscribers, and Agency biologists with the ability to query and view 10 databases and create custom reports of species and habitat information. Geographic searching capabilities allow the users to query a location for the presence of sensitive wildlife resources. The system is used by federal, state, regional and local government agencies, private industry and consulting firms, education institutions, and the general public, for a variety of wildlife-related applications.

Note: The database contains data fields to which public access may be restricted. Specific information relating to data fields, record/table layouts, and known restrictions to public access is maintained by the department.
